

“Funny, I never thought the most romantic day of my life would be anything like this.”

INTRODUCTION

Let me introduce myself: I'm Jordan—a cinematographer, photographer, and storyteller.

I started my career young. In 2014, I was 15, taking on any project I could—fashion, concerts, brand shoots. One day I'd be driving through the night for a graduation shoot; the next, sneaking into clubs (legally questionable, but work is work) to film live shows. It was unpredictable, but I adapted. Every project sharpened my skills, pushing me to capture stories in new ways.

That drive led me to The Savannah College of Art & Design, where I majored in Film & TV Production, with a focus on fashion and beauty films. But in 2017, everything shifted. I filmed my first wedding and instantly knew this was special. It wasn't just about visuals—it was about real emotion and unrepeatable moments.

To be honest, I barely watched any wedding films before starting filming them. I came in with a fresh perspective, untouched by the existing industry. 75 or so weddings later, I have fallen in love with every bit of this job that doesn't feel like a job.

I'm driven by a desire to capture the fleeting moments, the quiet in-betweens, the electric ones that pass in a blur. One day, decades from now, you'll sit down with loved ones—some new, some old—and relive it all.

I'm truly grateful to be the person who gets to create this for you.

COUPLE SHOOT

The couple shoot is meant to show not only your wedding day, but the moments that led to it. Whether it's recreating a scene from your favorite film, or filming a dinner party with you and your friends, this separate shoot adds a unique layer to the story that is the two of you.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Can we just meet instead?

Yes! Scheduling a free video call is the best way to answer any questions you might have and, more importantly, to get to know each other. Send me an email including your preferred package, dates, venue, and a little bit about yourself.

What is the normal delivery time for the wedding film?

My standard delivery time is within 60 days after the wedding date. However, for those who opt for the express delivery service, you can receive your professionally edited wedding film within 30 days.

How do you handle music preferences in the wedding film?

Your music choices are crucial to personalizing your wedding film. I encourage you to share your favorite songs or let me know the mood you envision. I will work closely with you to incorporate the perfect soundtrack, ensuring that your wedding film is a true reflection of your love story.

Are you insured?

Yes. I have liability insurance and can provide a Certificate of Insurance (COI) upon request.

Do you offer custom packages?

Yes. If you have specific requests or a vision in mind, don't hesitate to share them with me. Whether you're celebrating your wedding in multiple places or you're a public figure, I can tailor a package to fit your unique needs.

Can I pay in installments?

Yes. Generally, I require 50% of the total fee upfront to secure your date(s), and the remaining 50% no later than 2 weeks prior to your wedding date. However, if you'd prefer to pay in more installments, I can tailor a custom payment plan that works for you.

What is the difference between wedding film and highlight film?

The wedding film is the longer of the two, so naturally, it tells a more full story of your love. The highlight film is just that, the highlights.
